

AGMA ANNUAL MEETING BRINGS CHANGES TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

AGMA is pleased to announce the appointment of Rick Fullington of Milwaukee Gear Company as Chairman of the Board for 2007-2008, as well as the appointments of Dennis Gimpert of Koepfer America as vice chairman, and Dave Ballard of SEW-Eurodrive as treasurer. The Board of Directors also welcomes four additions: Bryan Lammers, Gary Lehman, Dana Lynch and Matt Mondek were elected to serve for three years. AGMA would also like to thank outgoing Board members Ed Lawson, Greg Porter, and Alan Seitz for their years of service.

Bryan Lammers is the Division Manager of Caterpillar, Inc. Bryan has more than 25 years of experience in Manufacturing, Marketing and Product development, all at Cat. He has worked in assembly, machining, fabrications, and heat treatment in operations. In product development he has worked in structures, powertrain, analysis, hydraulics and electronics. He has had responsibilities for geared systems dating back to 1985. He has been a Certified Reliability and Quality Engineer and has served in the marketing of gears to OEM's.

He has served on the AGMA Foundation Board of Trustees for one term prior to joining the AGMA Board of Directors. Bryan and his wife, Debra, have two children, Nicole and Matthew. They make their home in Washington, Illinois.

Gary Lehman, a native of West Lafayette, Indiana is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Fairfield Manufacturing Company Inc. -- the largest independent gear manufacturer in North America. Prior to Fairfield, Lehman was the founder and Managing Director of The Cannelton Group, which provided operations and financial assistance to private equity and closely held manufacturing firms.

Lehman was an executive with ITT Automotive, holding positions of Senior Vice President of Worldwide Operations and (left) Rick Fullington of Milwaukee Gear Company is AGMA's Chairman for 2007-2008. (right) Greg Porter of Standard Machine receives a Board Award from Stan Blenke during the 2007 Annual Meeting.

General Manager of the Body Systems Division. He also held responsibility for manufacturing, sales, and marketing functions at Federal-Mogul Corp., TRW Inc., and John Deere.

After earning a bachelor's degree in Industrial Management from Purdue University in 1974, Lehman obtained an MBA from Case Western University, where he was the recipient of the Eaton Scholarship.

Gary is married to Michele Lehman and they have three children, Katrina (26), Preston (24) and Taira (22).

Dana Lynch joined Industrial Manufacturing Company, LLC in 1993 as President of Cleveland Gear Company, and became President of Columbia Gear Corporation in 1996. Both companies are wholly-owned subsidiaries and part of the Gear Division that also includes Milwaukee Machine Works. He has over thirty years of gear and executive leadership experience, having previously worked with Fortune 100 companies General Electric and Baker Hughes. Dana is a graduate of General Electric's Manufacturing Management program and has a BS degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Virginia.

Dana and his wife Alison have been married over thirty-six years, have three children, and reside in Hudson, Ohio.

Matt Mondek is President of Cotta Transmission Company, LLC. Matt Mondek began his career as a mechanical engineer designing outboard motors for Outboard Marine Corporation in Waukegan Illinois. Prior to beginning his career he received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin, Madison in Mechanical Engineering. He later received an MBA from the Lake Forest Graduate School of Management in Lake Forest Illinois.

During his 23 years with Outboard Marine he held various positions in product design, management, program management and strategic sourcing during which time he gained PE and CPM certification. In 1999 he joined Cotta Transmission as the Vice President of Engineering and Operations and became President in 2002. Cotta Transmission is a custom designer and manufacturer of specialty gearboxes for numerous industries.

Married for 25 years to wife Sandee, they have four children, Matthew, David, Niki and Jake. One graduated, two in college and one about to start. □